

IN THIS SECTION: Weddings and Engagements, 2B • Adjourned, 3B • Dave Barry, 4B • Annie's Mailbox, 5B

200 YEARS

Because of a log jam at the Arrow Rock port, the Corps of Discovery re-enactors had to dock by the Lamine River bridge south of Arrow Rock Tuesday. Most of the Corps traveled to Arrow Rock to set up camp for the Lewis and Clark commemoration.

Christina Fuerst, 15, of Blue Springs, listens while Corps of Discovery re-enactors Chuck Holland, of Arrow Rock, Steve Wicken, of Springfield, and Steve Wyatt, of Jefferson City, answer questions about the expedition Tuesday.